

Strong Points of the Texas Tech School of Pharmacy Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm.D.) Program

- Accreditation:

The Doctor of Pharmacy Program of the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education through June 30, 2020.

- On-Time Graduation Rate (4 Years):

Class Year	2017	2016	2015
Passing Rate	82%	88%	87%

- First Time Passing Rate on NAPLEX:

(Class of 2016)

Academic Year	2016-2017	2015-16	2014-15
TTUHSC Pass Rate	89.10%	88.39%	95.07%
State Pass Rate	84.84%	87.08%	91.59%
National Pass Rate	85.32%	86.81%	92.88%

- First Time Passing Rate on Third Year Drug Knowledge Assessment Exam:

Class Year	2017	2016	2015
Passing Rate	94%	98%	99%

- Graduates Entering Residencies:

Class Year	2017	2016	2015
Number of Graduates	41	31	30

- Recognized nationally and internationally for the excellence and strength of its Clinical Training Program. Geriatric and Pediatric clinical rotation requirements strengthen and enhance the core of our clinical training program.
- Present in multiple cities across North and West Texas (Dallas, Abilene, Amarillo and Lubbock).
- Our students are among the most prepared for residency training from a clinical knowledge and clinical skills perspective.