URGENT CARE

1. Rotation Details
   · Department of Internal Medicine Clinic, TTUHSC Clinic
     Preoperative Evaluation Clinic, Monday AM
     Urgent Care Clinic, Monday through Friday PM
     AIDS Community Clinic, Wednesday AM
   · University Medical Center, Medical Office Plaza
     Geriatric Cardiology Clinic, Tuesday AM
   · Department of Dermatology, TTUHSC Clinic
     Dermatology Clinic, Friday AM (1st and 3rd)
   · Department of Internal Medicine & Family Medicine
     Geriatric Clinic, Friday AM (2nd and 4th)
   · One month block

2. Educational Objectives

   To master the following objectives:
   · Perform complete histories and examinations in different outpatient settings. (K,S)
   · Interpret of laboratory, radiology, and ancillary medical tests (K, S)
   · Use evidence based medicine for patient management. (K, S, A)

   To attain the following competencies:
   · Evaluation and management of patient’s acute problems in the outpatient, general medicine setting. (CC1, CC2)
   · Evaluation and management of patients with acute/chronic problems in different outpatient settings (preoperative evaluation, HIV/AIDS, geriatric cardiology, dermatology). (CC1, CC2)
   · Identify patients that require multidisciplinary outpatient management. (CC1, CC4, CC5, CC6)
   · Communicate results of tests/procedures with patients and families. (CC4, CC5)
   · Acquire supplemental medical information/history using resources other than the patient. (CC1, CC4, CC6)
   · Perform patient education and counseling. (CC1, CC2, CC4, CC6)

3. Educational Methods and Resources

   · Disease mix
     - Patients undergoing elective surgery
     - Geriatric patients with chronic cardiac problems.
     - Patients with HIV/AIDS and related illnesses.
     - Patients with a spectrum of dermatologic problems.
     - Patients with acute medical problems.
   · Clinical Activities
     - Outpatient evaluation and management of adults with acute or chronic medical problems.
     - Evaluation and management of patients undergoing elective surgery.
- Evaluation and management of geriatric patients with chronic cardiac problems.
- Evaluation and management of patients with HIV infection.
- Evaluation and management of patients with dermatologic problems.
- Geriatric assessment

Reading
- MKSAP - 14 series (pertinent sections)
- ACC/AHA Guidelines on Perioperative Cardiovascular Evaluations for Noncardiac Surgery
- Preoperative Medicine - Just the Facts (pertinent sections)

Teaching
- Case discussions in clinic.
- Ambulatory care conferences
- Geriatric conferences

4. Evaluation Methods
- Direct observation of and feedback on history taking, performance of physical examinations, and patient counseling skills.
- Performance and feedback on medical record documentation including initial histories and subsequent visits.
- End of month evaluation form.
- Mini CEX during preoperative evaluation clinic.

5. Supervision and Responsibilities
- Resident will perform a problem focused history and physical, formulate a diagnostic and therapeutic plan, and make an appropriate note in the medical record.
- School of Medicine faculty will supervise all resident activities.
- This is an upper level rotation.